

8 Great Reasons to Become an Association Member

1 The Association advocates for excellence in the education profession.
The Association is a highly respected organization with hardworking advocates promoting the highest standards and ethics.

2 The Association is the voice of educators.
The Association tracks education policy and works on behalf of public school educators to lobby policy makers to invest in public schools.

3 The Association supports what members do in the classroom.
The local Association negotiates working conditions for educators and intervenes with administrators when warranted.

4 Association members effect real change that benefits our profession.
The Association speaks as a unified voice to influence reform and progress.

5 The Association fights for the rights of all members.
The Association defends members and Insures the right of due process for all.

6 The Association is only as strong as its members.
Educators must take an active role because no one else cares as much about our students, our profession, or our needs as we do.

7 The Association advocates for students.
The Association promotes quality public schools, quality teachers, modern and up to date learning tools, and smaller class sizes so teachers can spend one-on-one time with students.

8 Association membership is part of being a professional.
Teachers united to make a difference, to take care of each other, and to support each other. That's what the Association is all about.
